Here are a few of our favorite places.

1. CLAUDIA COHEN HALL ▲ Home of the College of Arts and Sciences
2. WILLIAMS CAFÉ ▲ A student-run café in Williams Hall, with great coffee (and even better service)
3. HOUSTON HALL ▲ America’s first student union, offering a variety of popular choices—including Houston Market, Insomnia Cookies, and Paris Café Creperie
4. IRVINE AUDITORIUM ▲ Home to an 11,000-square-foot library of the Wharton School, the Otto E. Albrecht Music Library, and the Van Pelt Library
5. FISHER FINE ARTS LIBRARY ▲ A national historic landmark designed by Frank Furness, with text and image collections that concentrate on the arts of the Western experience, Islam, South Asia, and East Asia from prehistory to the present
6. COLLEGE GREEN ▲ The heart of Penn’s campus

7. VAN PELT-DIETRICH LIBRARY CENTER ▲ The locus of Penn’s expansive system of libraries and home to four separate libraries: the Annenberg Rare Book & Manuscript Library, the Lippincott Library of the Wharton School, the Otto E. Albrecht Music Library, and the Van Pelt Library
8. LOCUST WALK ▲ The vibrant, tree-lined walkway that connects Penn’s campus and community
9. THE ARCH ▲ (Arts, Research, and Culture House) Home to three of Penn’s cultural resource centers (La Casa Latina, Makku: the Black Cultural Center, and the Pan-Asian American Community House), the Center for Undergraduate Research and Fellowships, and Tortas Frontera Café
10. WOMEN’S CENTER ▲ Provides the perfect space for women to study, relax, host meetings and workshops, or team up for civic engagement projects
11. FOOD TRUCKS ▲ Offer a huge selection of cuisines—including Asian, American, Indian, Jamaican, Mexican, and Middle Eastern—around the campus perimeter
12. THE QUADRANGLE ▲ Home to more than 1,400 Penn students (mainly freshmen) in three of Penn’s College Houses
13. PLATT PERFORMING ARTS HOUSE ▲ Provides space, support, and inspiration for the performing arts at Penn
14. JON M. HUNTSMAN HALL ▲ Home of the Wharton School
15. KELLY WRITER’S HOUSE ▲ A cozy center for writers that hosts hundreds of events each year, including poetry readings, film screenings, seminars, web magazines, lectures, dinners, radio broadcasts, workshops, art exhibits, and musical performances
16. CIVIC HOUSE ▲ Penn’s hub for student-led community service and social advocacy initiatives
17. LGBT CENTER ▲ One of the oldest, most active programs of its kind and a home away from home for sexual and gender minorities and their allies at Penn
18. HIP CITY VEG ▲ 100% plant-based menu, including vegan cheesesteaks, cupcakes, and shakes
19. DISTRITO ▲ Stylish, high-end Mexican cantina with food by Iron Chef Jose Garces
20. ABNER’S ▲ Authentic Philly cheesesteaks and pizza
21. GREENFIELD INTERCULTURAL CENTER ▲ A comfortable and supportive space for students, faculty, and staff of all backgrounds to join in common dialogue
22. POTTENCK HEATH AND FITNESS CENTER ▲ 120,000 square feet of state-of-the-art workout equipment, basketball courts, a climbing wall, and an Olympic-size pool
23. SANSOM ROW ▲ A historic block of row homes now housing restaurants serving BBQ, pub food, farm-to-table, seafood, and Mexican, as well as a popular café that offers gourmet coffee, tea, and chocolate
24. TOWNE BUILDING ▲ Home of Penn Engineering
25. THE PALESTRA ▲ Penn’s home gym, known as “the cathedral of college basketball,” which has played host to more NCAA tournaments than any other arena
26. PENN PARK ▲ A 24-acre urban park featuring sprint turf fields, a softball stadium, and a tennis center
27. FRANKLIN FIELD ▲ The oldest stadium still operating for football games, the site of America’s first scoreboard and a string of other firsts, and host of the annual Penn Relays
28. PENN MUSEUM ▲ The largest university museum in the United States, with vast archaeology and anthropology collections
29. CLAIRE M. FAGIN HALL ▲ Home of the School of Nursing

---

Create an @Penn Memory

Take your photo with these quintessential Penn landmarks and share with your friends. If you have any questions, tweet us @PreviewingPenn.

1. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN
   - The iconic face of Penn since its installation in 1939, this bronze by American sculptor John Boyle was cast in 1899.
2. THE BUTTON
   - Claes Oldenburg’s Split Button is said to depict Philadelphia’s four squares, but Penn students will tell you otherwise.
3. LOVE
   - Robert Indiana’s masterpiece is the perfect backdrop for expressing your feelings about Penn.
4. BEN ON THE BENCH
   - Join the long list of luminaries who have snapped photos with Ben—including Hillary Clinton, Desmond Tutu, Bono, and John Legend.