

CAMPUS LANDMARKS:		G 7G Dunning Coaches Center, Weightman Hall		N 4E Institute of Contemporary Art		U 3E Netter Center		AA 1G School of Dental Medicine		HH 7F Skirkanich Hall
A	4F Addams Hall	H	6F Fisher-Bennett Hall	O	5F Jerome Fisher Program in Management and Technology	V	6E New College House (2016)	BB	6F School of Design	II	4G Steinberg Hall - Dietrich Hall
B	4F Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts	I	2F Fox Leadership Program	P	5E Kings Court English College House	W	4H Nursing and Health Care Management	CC	4F School of Social Policy & Practice	JJ	2F Steinhardt Hall
C	4F Annenberg School for Communication	J	4F Graduate School of Education	Q	5E Law School	X	4H Perelman School of Medicine	DD	3G School of Veterinary Medicine	KK	5F Sweeten Alumni House
D	4H Biopond	K	2F College Houses (High Rises)	R	6F Levine Hall	Y	6G Roy and Diana Vagelos Integrated Program in Energy Research	EE	5E Sheraton Hotel	LL	4E The Inn at Penn
E	6G Chemistry Building	L	7E Hill College House	S	3G McNeil Building	Z	4G Roy and Diana Vagelos Program in Life Sciences and Management	FF	7F Shoemaker Green	MM	6F Vagelos Labs
F	3G Class of 1920 Dining Commons	M	3G Huntsman Program in International Studies and Business	T	6F Music Building			GG	7E Singh Center for Nanotechnology	NN	6F Weiss Tech House
										OO	9E WXP

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE

Chart your own path.

Here are a few of our favorite places.

EXPLORE ●

LIVE AND PLAY ◆

LEARN ■

EAT ▲

1. CLAUDIA COHEN HALL ■ Home of the College of Arts and Sciences

2. WILLIAMS CAFÉ ▲ A student-run café in Williams Hall, with great coffee (and even better service)

3. HOUSTON HALL ▲ America's first student union, offering a variety of popular choices—including Houston Market, Insomnia Cookies, and Paris Café Creperie

4. IRVINE AUDITORIUM ● Home to an 11,000-pipe organ; seats 1,260 for music and dance performances, film screenings, and lectures

5. FISHER FINE ARTS LIBRARY ■ A national historic landmark designed by Frank Furness, with text and image collections that concentrate on the arts of the Western experience, Islam, South Asia, and East Asia from prehistory to the present

6. COLLEGE GREEN ◆ The heart of Penn's campus

7. VAN PELT-DIETRICH LIBRARY CENTER ■

The locus of Penn's expansive system of libraries and home to four separate libraries: the Annenberg Rare Book & Manuscript Library, the Lippincott Library of the Wharton School, the Otto E. Albrecht Music Library, and the Van Pelt Library

8. LOCUST WALK ◆ The vibrant, tree-lined walkway that connects Penn's campus and community

9. THE ARCH ● (Arts, Research, and Culture House) Home to three of Penn's cultural resource centers (La Casa Latina, Makuu: the Black Cultural Center, and the Pan-Asian American Community House), the Center for Undergraduate Research and Fellowships, and Tortas Frontera Café

10. WOMEN'S CENTER ● Provides the perfect space for women to study, relax, host meetings and workshops, or team up for civic engagement projects

11. FOOD TRUCKS ▲ Offer a huge selection of cuisines—including Asian, American, Indian, Jamaican, Mexican, and Middle Eastern—around the campus perimeter

12. THE QUADRANGLE ◆ Home to more than 1,400 Penn students (mainly freshmen) in three of Penn's College Houses

13. PLATT PERFORMING ARTS HOUSE ● Provides space, support, and inspiration for the performing arts at Penn

14. JON M. HUNTSMAN HALL ■ Home of the Wharton School

15. KELLY WRITER'S HOUSE ● A cozy center for writers that hosts hundreds of events each year, including poetry readings, film screenings, seminars, web magazines, lectures, dinners, radio broadcasts, workshops, art exhibits, and musical performances

16. CIVIC HOUSE ● Penn's hub for student-led community service and social advocacy initiatives

17. LGBT CENTER ● One of the oldest, most active programs of its kind and a home away from home for sexual and gender minorities and their allies at Penn

18. HIPCITYVEG ▲ 100% plant-based menu, including vegan cheesesteaks, cupcakes, and shakes

19. DISTRITO ▲ Stylish, high-end Mexican cantina with food by Iron Chef Jose Garces

20. ABNER'S ▲ Authentic Philly cheesesteaks and pizza

21. GREENFIELD INTERCULTURAL CENTER ● A comfortable and supportive space for students, faculty, and staff of all backgrounds to join in common dialogue

22. POTTRUCK HEALTH AND FITNESS CENTER ◆ 120,000 square feet of state-of-the-art workout equipment, basketball courts, a climbing wall, and an Olympic-size pool

23. SANSOM ROW ▲ A historic block of row homes now housing restaurants serving BBQ, pub food, farm-to-table, seafood, and Mexican, as well as a popular café that offers gourmet coffee, tea, and chocolate

24. TOWNE BUILDING ■ Home of Penn Engineering

25. THE PALESTRA ◆ Penn's home gym, known as "the cathedral of college basketball," which has played host to more NCAA tournaments than any other arena

26. PENN PARK ◆ A 24-acre urban park featuring sprint turf fields, a softball stadium, and a tennis center

27. FRANKLIN FIELD ◆ The oldest stadium still operating for football games, the site of America's first scoreboard and a string of other firsts, and host of the annual Penn Relays

28. PENN MUSEUM ● The largest university museum in the United States, with vast archaeology and anthropology collections

29. CLAIRE M. FAGIN HALL ■ Home of the School of Nursing

Create an @Penn Memory

Take your photo with these quintessential Penn landmarks and share with your friends. If you have any questions, tweet us @PreviewingPenn.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

The iconic face of Penn since its installation in 1939, this bronze by American sculptor John Boyle was cast in 1899.

THE BUTTON

Claes Oldenburg's Split Button is said to depict Philadelphia's four squares, but Penn students will tell you otherwise.

LOVE

Robert Indiana's masterpiece is the perfect backdrop for expressing your feelings about Penn.

BEN ON THE BENCH

Join the long list of luminaries who have snapped photos with Ben—including Hillary Clinton, Desmond Tutu, Bono, and John Legend.

Office of Admissions

1 College Hall, Room 1
Philadelphia, PA 19104-6376

Phone: (215) 898-7507
info@admissions.upenn.edu
www.admissions.upenn.edu

Follow us:
@PreviewingPenn